Adam Orr was born in Winfield, Kansas and graduated from high school in Mexico, Missouri. He attended Southwest Missouri State University (now Missouri State University) where he received a B.S. degree in General Business and Finance in May of 2003. In August of that year, he began his studies as part of the first class of the Bible Institute of Missouri, located in Springfield. After completing his first year, he married, Julie (Detwiler), May 29, 2004. He graduated from the Bible Institute of Missouri the following May (2005). Adam worked with the Fordland church of Christ, in Missouri for 10 years, and currently works with the Westside church of Christ in Midland, Texas. Adam and Julie have two sons, Evan (10) and Alan (8).
